

31 ATTENDING A. C. COURSES

Weber County Well Represented by Project Leaders at Special School

(Special Dispatch)
LOGAN, Jan. 12.—Thirty-one project leaders from the different counties of the state have registered at the Utah Agricultural college for the two weeks training courses which began Monday, January 9. The courses offered the project leaders have been designated for their special phases of home demonstration work in county or community programs. They are given instruction in making of dress forms, tailored finishings, cleaning and dressing, fundamentals of dressmaking, fundamentals of millinery, advanced millinery, food for the family, and home health and nursing.

The college has provided comfortable housing accommodations on the campus without cost to the leaders and meals may be obtained at the cafeteria at a low price.

Besides taking the scheduled courses the leaders have sufficient time at their disposal to select additional work from the general courses offered during the two week period.

The following project leaders have registered for the special training courses:

Morgan county, Miss Mary Miesham, Morgan; Mrs. Kate Littlefield, Morgan; Mrs. Frank Ulrich, Morgan; Weber county, Ethel Randall, North Ogden; Mrs. R. E. Herrett, Pleasant View; Mrs. Mildred Mortensen, Huntsville; Miss Ivy Green, Kanab; Utah county, Mrs. Fern Merrill, Lehi; Miss Fern Parks, Sharan; Mrs. Vera Thompson, Fairfield; Mrs. Tom Kirkham, Lehi; Mrs. Vera York, Pleasant View; Mrs. Mae Mercer, American Fork; Mrs. Abe Phillips, Lehi; Mrs. Blanch Armstrong, Fairfield; Mrs. Annie D. LOWER JAW BRUISED.

Discussing the probable cause of death or unconsciousness, Dr. Galligan said he was unable to state definitely. "There was a bruise on the woman's lower jaw, and two teeth had been loosened as if from a blow. A towel had been tied about her neck. In view of these circumstances, the most probable conclusion is that she was knocked into insensibility or choked, and then thrown upon the bed."

William H. Bywater, chief of the fire department, told of going to the fire and described the position of the body. The woman's feet and hands had been tied, he said, and she had been gagged. One towel was found about her neck and another over her eyes. The bedding had soaked with kerosene.

Captain W. J. Hancock of the central fire station testified that at the premises the door leading from the bedroom was about ten inches ajar when he entered the bedroom.

Testimony of various tenants in the Pauline apartment concerning the discovery of the fire and efforts to gain admittance was taken during the afternoon.

TENANT HEARS NO DISTURBANCE.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Cottrell, wife of S. A. Cottrell, manager of the apartment, said that after repeated pounding upon the door, it was opened from the inside and Woods staggered into the hallway and fell upon the floor. She said she did not notice whether his hands or feet were bound, but said that she saw an electric light cord lying on the floor near his feet.

Mrs. Mary Collins, who occupied the apartment beneath that of Mr. and Mrs. Woods, said that she was home from 12 o'clock until after the time when the fire is said to have occurred, but heard no noise.

Mrs. Collins said she heard no disturbance in the Woods apartment, although she ordinarily heard such noise as one walking across the floor.

DETECTIVE TAKES STAND.

Riley M. Beckstead, chief of detectives, was on the stand when adjournment was taken until this morning. He declared that Woods had made conflicting statements when he was now he and his wife were held up. He called attention to the fact that it was but a few steps from the bathroom into which Mr. Woods said he was thrust by one of the holdups to the hallway.

"I asked Mr. Woods why he had not stepped out into the hall when he was thrust into the bathroom, unbound the first time, and he said he did not know," Chief Beckstead said.

"Mr. Woods said that he had gone to the door to answer the knock and that the larger of two burglars had thrust a gun into his chest and pushed him into the bathroom," Chief Beckstead said. "In his first statement he said that he walked out of the room to be near the side of his wife, who was in the dining room. He said that they had made no effort to bind her. Later he said that one of the men was binding Mrs. Woods' feet, and that he rushed from the bathroom to her protection, only to receive a blow in the eye, and to be bound and gagged. After he was lying bound upon the floor he was robbed of $175, he said."

LIVESTOCK MEN IN CONVENTION

Sen. Kendrick of Wyoming
Speaks on Problems Facing Growers

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Jan. 12.—Governor Oliver H. Shoup welcomed 400 members of the American National Livestock association at the first open session of the annual convention this morning. On behalf of Colorado Springs, Mayor Ite Harris welcomed the stockmen and response to both governor and mayor was made by T. H. Ramsay of Red Bluff, Cal., president of the California Cattlemen's association. Discussion in the session of the executive committee Tuesday afternoon foretold that convention is to make a determined fight for lower retail prices and a greater consumption of meat. The livestock markets were declared also to be on low.

DIFFICULT PROBLEMS

Never before have the stockgrowers of the country been confronted with as many of serious problems as those being faced today, Senator John B. Kendrick of Wyoming told the American National Livestock association in convention here today.

"The solution of our task," said Senator Kendrick, "lies along the line of patient and courageous co-operation on the part of all. Let it not be said that the laborers are few or lacking in diligence."

Senator Kendrick voiced his approval of what is known as the agricultural bloc in the senate when he said:

"The prospect of obtaining modifications in the tariff bill, favorable to the woolgrowers and livestock producers, is increased by the fact that nearly every member of the so-called agricultural bloc is in favor of such changes. And I may say here that the membership of this bloc is composed almost exclusively of senators from the west and south, and includes something like an even number of members of both political parties."

WALLACE PRAISED

"The actions of this group of men are not based upon an attitude either in opposition to or in favor of any political party, neither are they antagonistic to anything that speaks for the welfare of any other industry or any section of the nation. They are less concerned as to party politics and more concerned about the welfare of the people for whom they assume to speak and they have been particularly concerned in securing at least limited recognition for agricultural and livestock interests."

Senator Kendrick praised President Harding's efforts to secure some measure of relief for the livestock raisers and also paid a high tribute to Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace.

"It is doubtful," he said, "if in all the land a man could be found more worthy and well qualified or one in whom there is reposed more universal respect and confidence than our present secretary of agriculture, Henry C. Wallace."

INSUFFICIENT CREDITS

"An important part of our legislative program is the enactment of a law that will provide more permanent system of credits for producers of livestock than are now available. We have at this time one of the most effective systems of commercial credits enjoyed by any of the great nations. The farm loan act has provided a fairly satisfactory method of making loans based upon landed securities, but no system of credits has yet been provided that will afford to stockmen reasonable access to loanable funds at low rates of interest and covering the necessary period of time required in the production of livestock."

In talking of the railroad situation as it concerns livestock raisers, Senator Kendrick said: "One of the many causes that have contributed so largely to the distress and discouragement of livestock producers has been the unjust and as we fully believe, the unnecessary increase in freight rates."

MARKET CONGESTION

In discussing market receipts, Senator Kendrick said: "One of the most serious questions demanding attention at our hands is that of congested receipts in our markets. It is reasonable to believe that stabilized receipts would go far toward stabilizing prices. It is becoming more and more apparent that there is an urgent need for some form of concerted action by which receipts in our markets may be more evenly distributed. A conservative estimate would probably show that the heaviest losses sustained by stockmen are occasioned through our present indiscriminate system of marketing."

"Summarizing the problems which are to be solved by this convention, I would say that our program is to defend and secure an adjustment of railroad rates that will be based upon equity and fairness."

"Through co-operation with allied branches of our industry we must exercise such legitimate influences as we have toward increasing the consumption and thus the demand for our products."

IDAHO MAN DYING
AFTER AUTO SPILL

(Special Dispatch)

RIGBY, Idaho, Jan. 12.—W. M. Briggs, of Rigby, is reported dying as a result of an automobile accident Wednesday when the car in which they were driving toward Roberts went off a bridge.

Physicians said Mr. Briggs had three ribs driven through his lungs. Deep snow which caused the driver to miss the crossing was assigned as the cause of the accident.

The couple was on their way to visit a daughter in Roberts.

REDUCE SALARIES

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Jan. 12.—Beginning with the general manager of the Twin Falls Canal company whose salary is to be reduced from $5,000 to $4,000, the stockholders of the company in the annual meeting recommended to the directors material reductions in salaries of all other employees and the practice of strict economy to put "wage earners and farmers on a more equitable basis as to earning power."

In another resolution the stockholders reaffirmed their contract with the reclamation service relating to the construction of the American Falls dam and called upon the secretary of the interior to sign a contract with the Idaho Power company, by which the reclamation service would take over rights and interests of the power company at American Falls.

UNMARRIED MOTHER
CENTER OF TRAGEDY

POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Jan. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, and James Walter were arrested Wednesday on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Buelah Gray, unmarried, and the death of an infant boy.

The boy's body was found between two mattresses on the bed in which Buelah Gray, his mother, died. The baby's head had been crushed, with a heavy instrument, authorities say.

The girl's parents, and Walter, a farm employe, claim they have no knowledge of the deaths. They are held without bail.

BANKING RESUMED

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—(By the Associated Press).—After seven and a half years' interruption, official banking relations between Russia and Germany were resumed today. The new Russian state bank deposited several million marks in the Deutsche bank and drew its first check for 1,500,000 marks.

NUMEROUS CRIMES
STARTLE NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The shooting of a Harlem delicatessen store proprietor by one of three negroes who tried to rob him and the theft of $1,300 from the composing room of the New York Call, were reported by the police Wednesday.

The negroes held up Morris Horowitz in his store and, when his wife screamed at the sight of a revolver pointed at her husband's head, one of them shot him in his side. The robbers ran to the street without having obtained any money and escaped. The wounded man was taken to a hospital.

The money stolen from the Call was the printer's wages which had been taken from a drawer in the foreman's desk during his brief absence from the composing room.

In Brooklyn, Fernando Porpale, Cuban; Juan Soya, native of Argentina, and Augusto Zuppelo, were arrested by the police narcotic squad for selling cigars containing "hashish," an Indian drug. This was said to be the first case of its kind in the state.
